

YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Local News Briefly Mentioned

Jake Childs brother of the editor of the Recorder left for Richmond last Saturday after several days visit.

Willie Cavanah who has been out to Stronghurst, Illinois for several months returned in time to celebrate the 4th.

Clem Jeter and family of Kansas City are visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Lucy Cock is in New York for the big millinery establishment which employs her in Kansas City.

Mrs. W. A. Hurt who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. Elliott returned to her home in Kansas City Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Marybeth Smith who has been at home with inflammatory rheumatism came in Monday for a visit to Mrs. R. W. Cropper.

Mrs. W. H. Morriss who has been visiting Miss Lurline Elliott returned to Kansas City Tuesday.

A. M. Coulter traveling salesman for the New York shoe house visited his wife and little girls at the home of Judge O. F. Smith this week.

Mrs. Kate Carmon, mother of our esteemed assistant some time ago, Miss Maria Carmon, came in from Santa Fe, N. M. Wednesday and on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Mattie Foster and two children are visiting her parents and other relatives west of town.

Judge Jno. Goll and family with Willie as chauffeur, took in the 4th, here.

Two little disturbances were the only unpleasant features arising from too much of the Oh-be-joyful on the 4th.

Quite a number from Brunswick and Salisbury motored over to take in the fourth.

J. L. Cropper returned last Saturday from a business trip to Oklahoma. Mr. Cropper was attacked with ptomaine poison and was quite sick from eating a salad.

Miss Emma Blume of Moberly is the guest of her friend, Mr. James Roy Key, at the Brown House for a few days. Miss Blume is a former Chariton county girl, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blume, who lived near Mendon several years ago.

LOST:—A black Prince Albert coat between Shannondale and Keytesville, Sunday. Finder please return to Rev. J. H. Ward Keytesville and get reward. 21tf

Russel Bartow and Hon. Fritz Sasse came down Monday in Russel's auto on business from Brunswick.

Joe Cooley, the jolly Democratic old timer from out northeast of town visited Jacksonville, Mo., last week to see his niece who died and was buried while Joe was there.

Miss Mary O'Bryan returned from a visit to her sister at Bosworth last Thursday.

Mrs. Jessie Talbott and children of Payette are visiting the family of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coleman this week.

Henry Davis of Kiefer, Okla., is here on a visit to his father, Hon. B. B. Davis who is yet in very poor health.

Finis Stamper brot over in his automobile from Salisbury, Ed Huss, Frank Hays, Bob Copeland and Wm. Parks last Friday night to get returns from Baltimore.

Mr. J. D. Ingram of Nevada, Mo., chairman of the Price monument committee was in town Saturday on business in connection with the monument.

C. H. Munsell who purchased of E. M. Carter and sons the Keytesville Telephone Exchange is a very pleasant, all business gentleman and will give to the patrons of the exchange the best of service. The Exchange is now a part of and called the Chariton County telephone Co., the other part being the Salisbury Exchange.

E. M. Carter and sons, we regret to say will at once look up another location for a telephone exchange and there is a prospect that we will lose this estimable family in a short time.

Lost

Gold watch and leather fob some where on streets. Finder return and get reward.

21 ff E. P. STAMPER
Mrs. J. P. Coleman and daughters, Miss Nannie and Mary were shopping in town Saturday. Mrs. J. M. Woods of Nevada arrived Monday on a visit to the family.

E. E. Rettig left Saturday for Dillon, Montana, where (altitude permitting,) he expects to take charge of the Hiland Type Foundry. He has had several years' experience in this line, and prefers it to newspaper work. In the latter he has spent some 30 years of his life. Mrs. Rettig will remain in Keytesville for a few months.

For soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Some presidential candidates and pugilists who want to win had better stay away from the ring.

Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion, won the battle at Los Angeles over Rivers on a foul in the 13th round.

We simply couldn't give our readers fresh news and get out on time this week.

Our whole force was too nearly worn out to work two nights in order to get out on time, but we give our readers news to make up for our failure.

Mrs. John M. Davis of Brunswick, sister of Dr. Jno Wallace of that city and Capt. J. C. Wallace, died last Saturday from a stroke of paralysis. Obituary next week.

Chief Tisdale handled the big crowd on the 4th, admirably. With as many pretty girls smiling on him as there were—oh well—we "couldn't" a donnit.

Elevated sewer pipe and submerged crossings ought to reverse themselves—nobody else will.

J. L. Fidler of Salisbury is the new manager of our telephone exchange. J. L. is O. K.

J. P. Tippet, our big implement dealer, gave away five of the lucky prize tickets, and 3787 given to G. W. Harlan for one dollar subscription to the Courier cleared Mr. Harlan $9. We will give next week a list of those who gave out the tickets which won the $300.

Jonson knocked Flynn out in the 9th. The regret is that they didn't knock each others blocks off in the first. Police stopped the fight at the 9th., but the coon had him treed for keeps. The crowd was small and East Las Vegas New Mexico where the fight was held, as well as the promoters was much chagrined at the whole affair.

Mrs. Jno. R. Dempsey and family of Pierce City are visiting relatives here this week.

H. W. Perkins and wife of Kansas City came down Wednesday their daughter preceding them Monday.

CHIL-LAX

For Chills and Fever

Misses Louella and Chris Hershey returned from a visit to Kansas City friends and relatives Monday.

Earle Williams, who has been in St. Louis for several years came in last Saturday on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Permit us to THANK you most HEARTILY for your interest in the BIG DRAWING for the $300 IN CASH PRIZES given to the HOLDERS of the LUCKY NUMBERS held July 4th, and also for your PARTICIPATION in our CELEBRATION.

The PATRONAGE you have bestowed on us has been met with GOOD GOODS and at the RIGHT LIVING prices and THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash thrown in.

May we ask that you CONTINUE to make KEYTESVILLE your CHIEF TRADING point and that you meet us at least PART of the way in our efforts to BENEFIT and PLEASE.

Look Out for the Next Attraction

along this line—it will be GREATER and will be conducted along the same HIGH PLANE.

KEYTESVILLE Mercantile Association

Mrs. W. R. Rucker went to Slater Wednesday to visit her sister and spend the 4th.

Mrs. Troy Longwell and sister-in-law, Mrs. Heacock were Moberly visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. Herring and sister, Miss Sallie Stevens shopped in Moberly Monday.

Miss Myrtle Gray left for Excelsior Springs Wednesday for an extended visit.

Jim Ward Jr. got in on time for a visit to relatives and for the 4th.

Miss Eula Harding returned Wednesday from a weeks visit to friends at Triplett.

Miss Edith Hamilton of Brunswick came down last Monday night with Lovick Rucker and party.

Roy Williams, one of our old get there boys and one of the managers for the Simmons Hardware Co. came in to visit homefolks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams this week. Roy has been looking after this Co's interest in the west for some time.

Miss Dixie Gaines of Larimar, Colorado, but formerly of Musselofrk is here on a visit to friends. Miss Dixie will leave Saturday for Monro, Co., to visit her grand parents before returning to her home.

Mrs. Tillie Chilcott is spending the mid-summer term with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Prather.

Some of our county correspondents unavoidably crowded out. Will appear next week.

Noel Walther returned this week from a business trip out west.

Last Monday night the Odd Fellows lodge installed Charles E. Yeager of Dalton district, deputy GM. Milt Bennett, N. G., J. E. Montgomery V. G., M. S. Walther Secty., M. W. Anderson Tres.

Lovick Rucker of the firm of Knight and Rucker of Brunswick accompanied his son, Babe in an automobile to the hub this week. Mrs. Rucker and Dr. Rucker and two young ladies were in the party.

Wallace Agee Jr. and his young friend Mr. Marshall of Carrollton were smiling on some of our pretty girls last Sunday.

We were in error last week in saying John Robinson had married Miss Ruth Whiteside. John captured Miss Elizabeths effectons instead of Miss Ruths, John or any other young fellow is lucky who persuades either one of this bevy of girls to say yes.

Rev. W. C. George pastor of German Methodist Church South of Dalton, and his family were shopping and attending to other business Tuesday.

Paul Harper with his buggy and team got caught between two automobiles at the west approach of a bridge below the court house and for a while Paul did not know whether the one in front was going to back up and put him out of business or the one behind would scoop him into the creek.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

John Staples and father and mother, Alec Staples and wife of Marceline motored down to the hub last Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

The Keytesville Concert Band will open its series of open air concerts on the streets Monday evening July 8. Everybody come in after supper, hear some some good music and spend a pleasant evening.

Clarence Gordon in company with two young men of Marceline came down last week to visit Mr. Gordon's parents north of town but on account of one of the young men taking sick they were compelled to go home before they got thru fishing and hunting.

Roy Rucker went to Kansas City last week with Prof. J. W. Taylor and brot back a handsome Chalmers car.

Mrs. Hundley and children and maid left Monday for Kansas City enroute to New York whence they will sail for the Orient accompanied by Miss Hill. Grandma Hill is lonesome already.

KILL-POIS For Bad Blood

The U. D. C's. will meet with Mrs. Dan Bayne in the country Monday July 9 at 2:30 p. m. All members requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry West of Brookfield spent the 4th with Mrs. Walter Herring.

Miss Kate Hawkins went to Marceline Wednesday on an extended visit to her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Bettie Lowry and daughter, Miss Minnie.

Ben Binford of Chicago came in this week on his annual visit to his mother, Mrs. T. H. Binford. Andy and Nat will be in soon.

For Rent

Four room cottage, newly papered and repaired and small dry cellar, close in, for rent. Apply to

ROY W. CROPPER

Judge Faris, the Southeast, Missouri candidate for Supreme Judge, was in town this week getting acquainted. Judge Faris has excellent endorsement of the bar, and in no way conflicts with the aspiration of Hon. Perry Rader.

Misses Nilene and Rebecca Smith of Muskogee spent the 4th with friends in this city.

Mr. Waller of Centralia, head of the Waller Clothing Co. spent the week with us.

Miss Agnes Bayne is up for a two weeks vacation from Jefferson City where she is second stenographer in the Adjt. Genls. Office.

Capt. Wallace's daughter, Miss Idress and Miss Willie Davis and brother, Henry attended the funeral of Mrs. Jno. M. Davis at Brunswick last Wednesday.

You Can Make Someone HAPPY

BY Giving Them Your : Piano Votes

If You Are Not Saving for Yourself

Be sure and Ask for Them With Every Cent's Worth of Your Purchase.

Why Not Enter the Race Yourself

H. M. Sigloch

Siberia Refrigerators and Ice Boxes

Non-conductors of Heat - Purifying and ICE-MAKERS

Lightning Ice Cream Freezers

Freeze Cream in 5 Minutes

One Minute Washers and New Home Washers full ball bearings

PERFECTION OIL STOVES

ASBESTOS Ovens — takes only half of the time to bake.

Also Monarch Oil Stoves

Croquet Sets, Fishing Tackle, and a General Stock of

Hardware & Queensware

Phone 32

W. D. VAUGHAN